A Cooked Goose to a Singing Swan

- _____ was influenced by the teachings of John Wycliffe and condemned to death for heresy in 1415.
  - “You may roast this goose, but a hundred years from now a swan will arise whose singing you will not be able to silence.”
  - In 1517, Martin Luther nailed his 95 theses (disputes with the Roman Catholic Church) to the church door in Wittenberg, Germany.

The making of a monk

“When the coin in the coffer rings, the soul from purgatory springs”

From son of Rome to heretic

Entering paradise through open gates

“The rays of sun drive out the night.”
