

One Bird, Two Stones

- October 31, 2017 is the _____ anniversary of the Protestant Reformation.
- Scripture alone is our _____ for life and godliness because the Bible alone is how God speaks to us on these issues.
- Our greatest problem is that we are _____ to God because we are unrighteous.
 - The _____ and irreligious are guilty before God.
 - God's law leaves us _____ before Him.
 - God's law is _____ to help us.
- Our greatest hope is that we can be acceptable to God because of Christ's _____
 - The righteousness we need does not come to us through the _____
 - The righteousness we need comes as a gift of God's _____
 - The righteousness we need comes from _____

- The righteousness of Jesus is credited to our account by faith _____
 - We are saved from _____ by grace alone through faith alone.
 - Grace alone means that salvation from the wrath of God comes to us only through the work of Christ apart from any _____ of our own.
 - Faith alone means that the righteousness we need to be made acceptable to God comes only through trust in Christ apart from any _____ of our own.
 - We have _____ by grace alone through faith alone.

Make It Real

Because of what Jesus has done for me and what I have heard today, I will:

- Turn from my sin and trust Jesus alone to forgive me, make me acceptable to the Father, and give me new life.
- Examine myself to see if I am truly trusting the work of Christ alone to make me acceptable to Him or if am adding my works to His.
- Consistently remind myself that I have been credited with the perfect righteousness of Jesus and choose to live in joyful obedience as a result.
- Share something I learned with someone this week.