Make it Real

Because of what Jesus has done for me and what I have heard today,

- I will confess my sin, turn from it, and trust Jesus, the Lord of the Sabbath, to forgive me, make me acceptable to the Father, and give me new life.
- I will be gracious and humble in my response to those who have truly sought to follow God's law but missed the point and drifted into legalism.
- I will rest in the finished work of the Lord of the Sabbath and keep my eyes on Him and His purposes as I follow Him and serve others.

4. What does it mean that the Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath?
5. What did the Pharisees miss in their zeal to keep the law and accuse Jesus regarding the man with the withered hand?
6. What was Jesus' response to the Pharisees in 3:5? What do these emotions tell us about Jesus?
7. How would you respond to someone who says you must keep the Sabbath and not do any work on Sundays? See Colossians 2:16-17; Hebrews 4:8-10
