Ask Me Anything

God has given us everything we need for life and godliness through our knowledge of Him. (see 2 Peter 1:3)

- Tonight is an opportunity for you to ask the questions you have always wanted to ask but were never sure how.
 - The questions can be about anything relating to “life and godliness”. Questions about God, the Bible, theology, relationships, problems, the church, the family, life and death, how to handle a troubling situation, making choices . . . are all welcome.
- The purpose of this is to:
 - Answer your questions.
 - This is rather obvious, but we do not regularly provide opportunities in the church for you to openly ask questions and get answers.
 - Stir up your mind.
 - I believe that if we are not asking questions, we are not thinking. I also believe that getting answers to the questions you have usually generates more questions (and more thinking). This is a good thing!
 - Sharpen your thinking.
 - We often get lazy in our thinking. Because we have “an” answer to someone’s question, we stop thinking.
 - Give you confidence that God has answers to the questions we have.
 - The answers are not always easy to come by and some of the answers require an exercise of our faith, but God has not left us without direction.
