

Risky Obedience

_____ servants invest what they are given for the benefit of the King.

- They _____ the King.
- They _____ in obedience to the King.
- They are rewarded with the _____ of the King.

_____ servants hide what they are given and are worthless to the king.

- They don't _____ the King.
- They don't _____ the King.
- They are sent into _____ by the King.

_____ is dead.

- Ephesians 2:8-10; James 2:17, 26; Matthew 25:31-46; 7:21-27

By faith, _____ for the benefit of the King.

Pursue God's _____ by being a good and _____ servant.

Pursue God's _____ by being a good and _____ servant.

Pursue God's _____ by being a good and _____ servant.

Risky Obedience

_____ servants invest what they are given for the benefit of the King.

- They _____ the King.
- They _____ in obedience to the King.
- They are rewarded with the _____ of the King.

_____ servants hide what they are given and are worthless to the king.

- They don't _____ the King.
- They don't _____ the King.
- They are sent into _____ by the King.

_____ is dead.

- Ephesians 2:8-10; James 2:17, 26; Matthew 25:31-46; 7:21-27

By faith, _____ for the benefit of the King.

Pursue God's _____ by being a good and _____ servant.

Pursue God's _____ by being a good and _____ servant.

Pursue God's _____ by being a good and _____ servant.